Mrs. Dobyns as chairman of her committee read the following resolutions:
Teachers Institute, Maysville, Ky., 1914: Your committee beg leave to submit and recommend for adoption the following resolutions:
First, we thank Supt. Caplinger and the Maysville Board of Education for the use of their handsome and commodious building for the session of the Institute.

Second, we express our great appreciation of the work of Mrs. Stewart and thank her heartily for the instruction and inspiration that she has given us.

Third, we thank Mr. Croxton for his musical instruction and for the pleasure that we had in his singing.

Fourth, we endorse the present adopted Course of Study and recommend that it be carefully followed by every rural teacher in the county.

Fifth, we urge every teacher to be prompt and careful in the use of the test questions sent out from the Superintendent's office.

Sixth, we now adopt the health program suggested by our County Superintendent and pledge our support in carrying it out. We suggest that it be published conspicuously in the county papers and that printed copies be posted in every school room.

Seventh, we hope for a more general use of the State Reading Circle Course among our teachers.

Eighth, we pledge the attendance as far as possible of a teaching force in the Ninth District Association at Mt. Sterling in November.

Ninth, we heartily commend the work of the Kentucky Educational Association and pledge our attendance in large numbers at all its sessions.

Tenth, (Consolidation.) Eleventh, we recommend that community centers be established in the various districts with the school as the center as is being done in many places.

Twelfth, we endorse Moonlight Schools, an institution which originated in the Ninth Congressional District in Kentucky, as a practical institution for stamping out Kentucky's illiteracy and elevating the standard of education among the adult population of rural sections, and we pledge ourselves to establish them in Mason county and to eradicate its illiteracy completely before 1920.

Thirteenth, we greatly appreciate the kind services of the press in reporting the daily proceedings of our institute, and also educational movements in Mason county.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

Men will often trust their daughters with men whom they wouldn't trust with a five-dollar bill.

Any old time you tell a girl that she has small feet she will come right back with the statement that "These shoes are a mile too big for me."

When a man can get his wife to believe that his business compels him to remain at the office until 3 a. m. one day a week he imagines that he has the world by the tail.

When two women who haven't seen each other for almost an hour meet on the street they kiss and slobber for a while and then turn to see if there are any men around to appreciate what they are missing.

Before he gets her he swears by her. After he gets her he swears at her.

Some of the bow-legged girls take chances with the transparent skirt, but why is it that you never see one wearing a bathing suit?

Class will always tell. You can put a one-hundred-dollar hat on a ten-cent woman, and she will continue to look like a ten-cent woman.

KENTUCKY BAIRES

HEAR THE OTHER SIDE

Hon. Jacob E. Meeker

of St. Louis, Mo., will speak at the Court House in Maysville on Saturday afternoon, September 12th, at 1:30 p. m. on

"The Threat of Prohibition"

Mr. Meeker was recently nominated for Congress in the Tenth Missouri District by a majority of 10,600, which shows his popularity among those who know him.

You have heard much about prohibition from the prohibition side; come and hear the other side.

Mr. Meeker is an entertaining talker, who knows his subject and will tell you many things that are true and will interest you, no matter whether you are "wet" or "dry".

Ladies especially invited, but it is desired that persons in all walks of life, and of every race, creed and color, will come and hear Mr. Meeker discuss the subject which has been so much discussed in the past two weeks.

Mr. Meeker backs his assertion by authoritative facts. Let everybody come and hear him.

Admission free, no collection.

You'll appreciate that porch light all the year round

It's just as convenient in winter as in summer. While its cheerful glow welcomes your friends and guests, it is also the best burglar protection against tramps and other undesirable callers. It is a striking example of the superior convenience of electric light.

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

With Edison Mazda Lamps you can enjoy all the other conveniences of electric light—the clear light, the attic light, the closet light, the all-night light—because EDISON MAZDA lamps take so little current that you can afford all these electric comforts at no greater cost than you paid for the more ordinary uses of old style electric lamps. Tell us what you want and we'll tell you the best size of lamp for the purpose. We supply all sizes of the famous EDISON MAZDA Lamps.

Buyers to Share in Profits Lower Prices on Ford Cars

Effective from August 1st, 1914, to August 1st, 1915, and guaranteed against any reduction in that time:

Touring Car $490
Runabout 440
Truck Car 690

P. O. B. Detroit, all cars fully equipped.

Further, we will be able to obtain the maximum efficiency in our factory production, and the minimum cost in our purchasing and sales departments if we can reach an output of 300,000 cars between the above dates.

And should we reach this production, we agree to pay the buyer's share from $40 to $60 per car (on or about August 1, 1915) to every retail buyer who purchases a new Ford car between August 1st, 1914, and August 1st, 1915.

For further particulars regarding these low prices and profit-sharing plan, see the
